

October 06, 2025 – In the beginning: Women and the Early Christian Church

Jesus of Nazareth left no writings and little concrete guidance for his followers beyond commanding them to spread his Good News (aka the gospel). Historians tell us that in their earliest phases new movements often include women and other untraditional leaders; whoever can help is welcome! This was the case in the first centuries of the Jesus Movement as it evolved into a new religion called Christianity. Who were these women and what did they do? Let's find out!

Dr. Mary Joan Leith

Professor Leith, of Religious Studies at Stonehill College, is a long-time friend of Saint Susanna Adult Faith Formation. At Stonehill she teaches courses on the Bible and the religion, history and culture of the Ancient Near East and Greece. She holds her BA as well as her MA and PhD from Harvard University.
