

November 2, 2026 – Antisemitism – The World's Oldest Hatred

Sadly, antisemitism is alive and well, rearing its ugly head in the political world and in everyday conversation. Rabbi Robert Orkand will provide a brief history of antisemitism and an analysis of current-day events and how religious communities can join together to combat this and all hatred and intolerance.

Rabbi Robert Orkand

Rabbi Robert Orkand is a retired pulpit rabbi who, for over 50 years, served congregations in Florida, Illinois and Connecticut. He and his wife Joyce live at NewBridge in Dedham.