December 14, 2026 – Who is Pope Leo

Father Dlugos's presentation will include a video of Pope Leo that was made for the Augustinians. He will share his own personal connection with Pope Leo as an Augustinian, highlight the main themes of Augustinian Spirituality in which have he and Pope Leo have been formed, and relate them to Leo's ministry as Pope. Pope Leo's 2026 encyclical "Magnifica Humanitas" focuses on safeguarding the human person, dignity, and labor in the age of artificial intelligence. Father Dlugos will talk about Leo's concern with the dehumanizing processes we currently face, as well as his concern for the marginalized peoples of our world.

Fr. Raymond F. Dlugos

The Reverend Raymond F. Dlugos was ordained in 1983 for the Order of St. Augustine. He is a licensed psychologist in New York and a registered psychologist in Ontario, Canada. Since 2008 Father Dlugos has been Vice President for Mission and Ministry at Merrimack College. Prior to that and after earning his Ph.D. in Counseling Psychology from the State University of New York, Father Dlugos served as vice president then chief executive officer of The Southdown Institute, in Aurora, Ontario. The Southdown Institute is a residential treatment center for members of religious orders suffering emotional, psychological and behavioral disorders.