February 8 2027 – Building the Future of the Church

(Under Development)

Montse Gasca

Montse Gasca is a second-year student at the Boston College Clough School of Theology and Ministry, where she is completing an M.A. in Theology and Ministry with a concentration in Latino/a Christianity and Ministry. Prior to CSTM, Montse graduated from Gonzaga University with degrees in Religious Studies and Business Administration in 2023 followed by working for the Jesuit Community at Santa Clara University and her home diocese in San Jose, California! She is particularly drawn towards youth and young adult ministry, campus ministry, and social justice-oriented work that serves migrant and other marginalized communities.

Sarah Skrove

Sarah Skrove is a Master of Divinity student at the Boston College Clough School of Theology and Ministry. She grew up in central Minnesota, earned her Bachelor of Arts in Theology from the College of Saint Benedict and Saint John's University in 2024, and will be graduating with her MDiv this May. She is interested in chaplaincy, campus ministry, and prison ministry, and is curious about theological approaches to human suffering and mental illness.